Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 20.—President Wilson and his bride abandoned plans to play golf to reply to hundreds of messages of congratulation from personal friends, relatives and officials.

Since reaching here the couple have remained in such deep seclusion that only members of their immediate party have seen them. They expected however to take an automobile ride late today. Their private railroad car was sent away today.

Arrangements for a Christmas celebration at the Presidents hotel were being made today. There will be a large Christmas tree and special musical entertainment. Members of the families of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson may come for the holiday, but no definite plans have been made.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Dec. 20.—Cards announcing the marriage of President Wilson and Mrs. Galt are being sent out from the White House. The announcement is simple in form, merely saying that "Mr. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt, nee Edith Bolling, announce their marriage Saturday, the eighteenth of December, nineteen hundred and fifteen, Washington, D. C."

The wedding of President Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt took place on Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock at the bride's home, and only the immediate relatives were present, the guests witnessing the ceremony numbering about thirty.

Because the hour of the wedding was known to comparatively few persons, there was not a large crowd in the vicinity of the bride's home, although a large police guard had been provided.

All arrangements for the wedding ceremony were carried out perfectly. The President arriving at his bride's home soon after 8 o'clock and the remainder of the wedding party, which numbered fewer than thirty, following soon after. The ceremony was begun, as had been arranged, at 8:30 o'clock and was followed by a buffet luncheon.

Mrs. Wilson was married in the traveling gown she wore to the train. The President dined as usual at the White House at 7 o'clock with his daughters and afterward drove to his bride's home, about a mile from the executive mansion.

Everything was in readiness for the ceremony when the President arrived, and it proceeded without music. Neither the President nor Mrs. Galt had any attendants, and there were no ushers or flower girls. Neither the army nor the navy nor the diplomatic corps was represented, and the occasion was essentially what both had wished it to be—a home wedding.

On the first floor of the bride's home, in two communicating rooms, a wedding bower had been arranged with a background of Farleye and maiden hair ferns which extended from the floor to the ceiling. Overhead, there was a canopy of green in the form of a shell lined with Scotch heather. In the background and at the center was placed a large mirror framed with orchids and reflecting the scene.

Above the mirror was a spray of orchids across a background of ferns, and the corners of the canopy were caught with orchids. American Beauty roses were on both sides of the canopy, beneath which was a prayer rug, on which President Wilson and Mrs. Galt knelt during the ceremony.

Just at the hour set for the ceremony, the President and his bride appeared at the head of the staircase, which was decorated with ferns, asparagus vines and American Beauty roses. The guests were grouped about the bower.

Reverend Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Protestant Episcopal church, of which the bride is a communicant, was waiting beneath the canopy to perform the ceremony, and with him, to assist, was the president's pastor, Rev. James H. Taylor of Central Presbyterian church.

During the ceremony and at the luncheon afterward, during which a string orchestra played, the bride wore her traveling dress, a black silk velvet gown, with a picture hat of black beaver, with no trimmings whatever except one feather slightly upturned on the left side. At her betrothal she wore the president's weddling gift, a magnificent diamond brooch. The skirt of her gown was of walking length and cut on full lines. The waist had silken embroidery of blue, shading from the deep tones of royal blue to delicate shades of pastel and was threaded with silver.

The lower part of the waist was embroidered on black net over a band of silver in the design of lilies, below which was a girdle of black velvet. The sleeves of the gown were of black net, fashioned in tiny tufts, with long bell-shaped cuffs of embroidered velvet, which came well down over the hand. Her collar, which was high and up-standing, was of black lace. When she left on her honeymoon journey, Mrs. Wilson wore over her gown a fur coat of broad-tail with bands of Yukon and muff to match. She wore a chin-chain collar.

Upstairs in the bride's house one room was set aside for the wedding gifts, which despite intimations from the White House that nothing be sent by any others than relatives and close friends, ran into the hundreds.

In deference to the president's wishes the houses of Congress sent no gifts officially, but many members sent personal remembrances. The Virginia delegation, representing the native state of the couple, sent a loving cup. Wytheville, the bride's home town, sent a miniature of Mr. and Mrs. Bolling, her parents. The Pocahontas Memorial Association, in recognition of Mrs. Wilson's descent from the Indian princess of that name, sent a bronze statuette of Pocahontas. The Menominee Indians of Wisconsin sent a handsome head belt. The former queen of Hawaii sent a scarf. Minnesota women sent a wedding cake. Every member of the cabinet sent a gift.

BRIDAL COUPLE ENJOY SECLUSION AT RESORT HOTEL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 20.—The gold links on the country side here today lured President Wilson and his bride, formerly Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, on the second day of their honeymoon. They had brought their clubs from Washington and planned to spend several hours on the course.

Mrs. Wilson is a devotee of the game, the President having taught her since they became engaged. Every arrangement had been made to allow the distinguished couple to spend their honeymoon quietly in the seclusion of the mountains of the state in which they were both born. A section of a hotel was set apart for them and secret service agents attempted to keep on a corps of photographers and moving picture operators.

Mountains and hills, wild and romantic, entirely surround the green plants of the warm springs valley. Winding roads and steep trails lead up the slopes of these highlands and Mrs. Wilson will have unlimited opportunity to indulge in her fondness for walking with the President.

Numerous motor trips have been planned by the couple, two White House automobiles having been shipped here for their use.

Congratulatory messages from every part of the world continued to reach the President and his bride today. Many of them will be personally answered from here. The President plans to attend to only the most pressing public business during his stay here but he will keep in direct telephone communication with Secretary of State Lansing and other officials.

President Wilson arose shortly after 7 a. m. today and after breakfasting in his private apartments began the task of clearing up the volume of accumulated personal correspondence in order that he and his bride might later play golf.

The President called in his private stenographer and dictated responses to messages of congratulations received from rulers in Europe, South and Central America and from personal friends in this country.

The day was ideal for golfing and the President and his bride had arranged to spend several hours on the links.

On the first floor of the bride's home, in two communicating rooms, a wedding bower had been arranged with a background of Farleye and maiden hair ferns which extended from the floor to the ceiling. Overhead, there was a canopy of green in the form of a shell lined with Scotch heather. In the background and at the center was placed a large mirror framed with orchids and reflecting the scene.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 20.—An agreement was reached and papers were being signed at noon today whereby the Villa faction in Northern Mexico concludes peace terms with the defacto government of Mexico.

The conference was held between Mexican consul Garcia and former Lieutenants of General Francisco Villa at the consulate in El Paso. General Francisco Villa is reported to be in Juarez. The signing of the peace agreement eliminates him from Mexican affairs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Dec. 20.—State department officials have decided that General Villa will receive the asylum accorded a political refugee should he enter the United States. This decision was sent last night to General Funston by the war department for transmission to Villa or his representatives.

State department agents had reported that alleged intermediaries had requested Villa's immunity from arrest saying that if this was given they believed Villa would abandon the fight against Carranza, and retire to private life in the United States. The state department does not conceal its desire to have Villa eliminated. Without him the revolution in the north will certainly fail, officials believe. The intermediaries also said that the plan was for the retirement from the field of the entire Villa army.

Much interest is displayed by officials here as to whether Villa will accept the promise of immunity as a political refugee. Such immunity would not protect him from prosecution within the United States on charges of an ordinary character. This government has nothing on which a charge will be brought against Villa but it is said that local officials at El Paso have information concerning all irregularities in cattle deals in which Villa was involved and this might be made the basis of prosecution.

Secretary Lansing announced that Villa had the right to enter the United States and would be given the same facilities of doing so as any other foreigner. A despatch to this effect has been sent to General Funston, the secretary said to be delivered to Villa.

Second American Note to Austria Reiterates All of the Demands Made By America

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Dec. 20.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the second American note to Austria on the sinking of the steamship Ancona had gone forward yesterday and should reach Vienna tomorrow night. While Mr. Lansing gave no intimation of its contents the note is understood to be a virtual reiteration of the original American demands, with the implication that it is the United States last word on the subject.

The text of the note will be issued for publication in newspapers Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Lansing said. The demands are for disavowal of the sinking of the Ancona, punishment of the submarine commander and the payment of an indemnity for the Americans killed and injured.

A reply is expected within ten days. Continuance of friendly relations between the two governments depends upon Austria's answer.

The names of twelve Americans said to have been on the Ancona, when she was torpedoed were received today by the state department from Ambassador Page at Rome. The cablegram concludes as follows: "Of these twelve, only three are known to survive, namely: Mrs. Greil, who left Rome to sail today from Bordeaux by steamer Rochambeau, Joseph Terrissi, in hospital at Ferryville, Tunisia, and Irlando Potlivo."

The note is about 600 words long and although characterized by those acquainted with its wording as firm in tone, is said to be somewhat less sharp than the first note in the tenor of its demands.

It is based squarely, according to these officials, on the Austrian admission of her own version of the Ancona sinking and while reference is made to American victims and survivors, the reference is said to be more incidental than direct.

FEDERALS WILL WITHDRAW SUIT IN U. S. COURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Dec. 20.—Counsel for the Federal League and organized baseball at a conference here today, are expected to arrange to appear in the United States district court and withdraw the suit filed by the Federal league against organized ball last summer.

The suit charged that the American and National leagues were operated in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Withdrawal of the action pending before United States District Judge Landis, will play an important part in the final settlement of peace terms at the conference of Federal leaguers and representatives of their major leagues in Cincinnati tomorrow.

James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league organization, Charles H. Weegham, president of the Chicago club and Harry F. Sinclair will represent the Federals at the Cincinnati conference tomorrow.

The American league will be represented by President B. B. John Messrs. Weegham and Johnson and probably Charles A. Combs, owner of the Chicago Americans will leave for Cincinnati tonight.

Thomas M. Chivington, president of the American association also will be in the party. "We are going to Cincinnati, to put the finishing touches to the peace negotiations begun in New York," said President Johnson. "I can state that permanent peace is practically assured. I can see no hitch in the negotiations. We have a thorough understanding on the points involved."

MINERS RESCUE FOUR; GENERAL STORE BURNED

Cambridge, Dec. 20.—When the general store of A. Schultz & Co. at Doughton, burned with a loss of $20,000, Saturday night, Mrs. Mary Delinsky and her three small children, were rescued by miners who lowered them from a second story window.

Because of alleged suspicious circumstances, Sheriff Heskett started an investigation Sunday night at the request of Schultz, who believes that the blaze might have been incendiary. Schultz said yesterday that the fire may have been started by an enemy. He was robbed of $50 several weeks ago, when the store was entered by burglars.

BELGIUM RULERS NEAR VICTIMS OF AVIATORS' BOMBS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Dec. 20.—Details of the narrow escape from death recently of the king and queen of Belgium when German aviators threw bombs on the fishing village where the royal couple now reside, are printed today by the Petit Journal.

The king and queen were coming out of church from Mass with the rest of the congregation, says the paper's correspondent when six German aeroplanes appeared flying low. Apparently they were coming from Ostend. The king at once told the people to scatter and take shelter but the aeroplanes approached so rapidly that few had time to comply with his instructions before the machines were over the village. Two bombs fell a few yards from the king and queen but they were not hit by the flying fragments.

Confesses to Conspiracy in Hindering Manufacture at War Munitions Plant

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Dec. 20.—Frederick Metzler held with others in connection with alleged plots in this country to embarrass the allies by hindering the manufacture of or destroying munitions, made a full statement to the federal authorities today concerning the activities of Paul Koenig of the Hamburg-American line. Koenig, he said, had 25 agents in New York alone and reported the results of his investigation to Captain Von Papen, the German military attaché.

According to Metzler, Koenig's activities through agents extended to Quebec, Burlington, Vt., Boston, and Portland, Me. His activities in this city, and secret reports made by attaches of the Russian embassy on the result of tests of speed boats in Long Island Sound. These, said Metzler, Koenig got through Frederick Schleindl of the National City Bank, now under arrest.

Metzler charged flatly that it was Koenig who sent George Fuchs to destroy the Welland canal, but Fuchs, he said, reported after visiting the canal, that its destruction

TWO WOULD-BE BRIDEGROOMS DRAW FINES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Jefferson, O., Dec. 20.—Probate Judge C. C. Babcock levied fines on two would-be bridegrooms in court here today following cases brought against them for falsifying regarding their ages when they procured licenses for a double wedding here last week. The weddings which were to have taken place in Connecticut last Thursday, were called off.

Roy R. Harley, regarding whose age there was dispute, satisfied the court that he was 21, November 16, last, but he was fined $25 and costs for contributing to the delinquency of his sister, Grace, who swore she was 18, when she was only 17, in order to get a license to marry Liberty M. Barker. Barker admitted in court today, he was but 19, though he swore he was 21. He was fined $25 and costs, and sentenced to 60 days in jail. Both fines were suspended until January 3. Meanwhile if Barker gets his parents consent he will be granted a license after January 3. Harley got his license today to marry Mabel Hoxie, who is twenty-two.

could not be accomplished at that time. The authorities have evidence which they believe connects Koenig with the fire on the Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha, though where this evidence was obtained they did not state. After making his confession, Metzler went before the grand jury. That body heard also witnesses from Buffalo, who testified concerning the Welland canal plot.

It is said today that possibly Metzler would become a witness for the government. It is reported that an examination of the books and documents seized by government agents in the office of Koenig, and Leyendecker, will result in a large number of additional arrests.

Three witnesses in the Welland canal investigation arrived here from Niagara Falls today. They are Daniel Schwartz, a hotel man; John Schwartz, master mechanic of the power plant at Niagara Falls and Mrs. Lizette Fuchs, step-mother of George Fuchs, one of the local men detained by Federal agents as a witness.

Assailants Mowed Down By

garded With Anxiety.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Dec. 20.—Withdrawal of the British troops from the Anzac cove and Suvla bay regions of the Gallipoli peninsula is announced in a brief official communication given out here this afternoon. Beyond the statement that the move was effected successfully with small losses, few details are given and no allusion is made to the allied forces on the Seddul Bahr front at the tip of the peninsula.

Some indication of the long expected offensive by the Germans in Flanders, where the massing of Tenthion troops is said to have been in progress for several weeks is contained in official British and French reports which state that under a cloud of gas Germans attacked British trenches northeast of Ypres. According to these reports the Germans failed so completely that few of them emerged from their own trenches and those who did so were mowed down by artillery fire.

The attack was delivered in the early morning. Later in the day the Germans displayed unusual activity, directing a heavy bombardment on the British lines near Ypres and on the French positions at Messines. Mines were exploded before the trenches at Armentieres and German infantry attempted unsuccessfully to occupy the craters thus opened.

Along the remainder of the western front the interminable artillery duels continue with the French guns near St. Mihiel developing an intense fire. The Russian and Macedonian fronts, so far as the public is advised are in a state of comparative quiescence.

The position of Greece is still regarded with keen anxiety by both sides. The Gounaris party is reported victorious in the Greek elections, but the expected change in leaders is not accepted as implying a different military policy. England is impatiently awaiting the crossing of the Greek frontier to see whether Greece will leave the Saloniki area free for a struggle in which the Greeks would become passive spectators.

In Bulgaria, the next step is the subject of warm debate. The official paper of Premier Radoslavoff declares the allies must be driven from Saloniki whether by Bulgarian or Austro-German troops, is a question for the military leaders to solve. The allies in Macedonia do not expect an early attack if the advance is left to the Austrians and Germans, as airmen report that the central powers have not yet gathered a sufficient force to undertake the offensive.

The Suvla Bay and Anzac cove positions are on the north coast of Gallipoli peninsula. Anzac cove is about 16 miles from the tip. Suvla Bay is five miles further on.

And as no mention is made in the British announcement of the allied position at the Seddul-Bahr position at the tip of the peninsula, it is not clear whether the withdrawal of troops indicates a decision to abandon the effort to force the Dardanelles or means merely a readjustment of the allied forces.

There had been no previous hint of such a move, although the question had been raised in England whether in view of the failure of the allies to make appreciable headway at the Dardanelles, and the urgent need for additional troops at Saloniki, the Dardanelles forces would be withdrawn.

Two official Turkish communications received yesterday spoke of severe firing from land and sea by the allies, but mentioned no movement of the ordinary although this bombardment may have been conducted to cover the withdrawal.

"Thank God, they are safely out of there without serious loss," is an expression frequently heard today in connection with the transfer of the troops from Suvla and Anzac coves to "another sphere of operations," although this is invariably coupled with regrets that it should have been regarded as necessary to evacuate the hard won footholds on the peninsula obtained at such a heavy cost in casualties.

The toe of the Gallipoli peninsula with Seddul-Bahr, commanding the entrance to the Dardanelles, is apparently still to be held, as no mention is made of its evacuation. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

CHURCH DEBT PAID, EDIFICE IS DEDICATED

Hebron, Ohio, Dec. 20.—The re-modeled and re-constructed Church of Christ was dedicated on Sunday with interesting services in the morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. Minor Lee Bates, president of Hiram College was present and had charge of the services.

The church was remodeled at a cost of $7050, on which $2330 had already been pledged. The amount necessary to dedicate the church was $4714 but in less than an hour on Sunday the sum of $5319 was secured.

The foundation of the church has been raised and a basement to be utilized for dining room and kitchen has been arranged. The floor of the church has been raised and six Sunday school rooms were added.

The church has been entirely re-decorated and presents an attractive appearance. The services on Sunday were held at 10 o'clock in the morning, 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7 o'clock in the evening. Excellent addresses were delivered by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Carter and Rev. Mr. Bates, and the dedicatory services were witnessed by a large congregation, there being many visitors present for the event.

tion is made of the transfer of troops from this region.

The war office statement leaves the public to draw its own conclusions as to the destination of the Australian and United Kingdom forces, which must be well over 100,000 strong, but it is widely conjectured that any southward sweep of the Teutonic or Bulgarian armies in the Balkans whether from the north, west or east, will sooner or later come in contact with them, and that the transfer is connected with a determination on the part of the entente powers not to remain on the defensive in the near eastern theatre of war longer than is requisite to assure the success of a forward march.

There are two fields of operations in the near east to which the British troops withdrawn from the Gallipoli peninsula might be forwarded—Macedonia and Egypt.

London looks for an attack on the allied positions at Saloniki. There is no official information as to the number of French and British troops in Greece, which has been estimated recently at about 200,000.

Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey have at their disposal several times that number of men, although Greece is opposed to the use of Bulgarian or Turkish troops for an advance on Saloniki. The allied troops at Saloniki are being reinforced steadily, but in view of the recent decision of France and Great Britain to continue the Balkan campaign it may be assumed that every effort will be made to concentrate a considerable force on the Saloniki base. This Greek port is within easy sailing distance of the Gallipoli peninsula. It is across the northern end of the Aegean sea from the peninsula, less than 200 miles distant.

If recent unofficial advices concerning the Egyptian situation are authentic Great Britain may feel the necessity of increasing her armed forces there. It has been represented that the Germans and Turks are preparing a formidable expedition to invade Egypt, capture the Suez canal and cut off England from India. According to one account, this enterprise has been placed in the hands of Field Marshal von der Goltz, the German commander of the first Turkish army. The Germans are reported to have constructed a double-track railroad to the Egyptian border through southern Syria.

Some of the bitterest fighting of the Dardanelles campaign has taken place at the positions now abandoned by the British.

ing his participation in Mexican affairs, were to be made here at noon, according to information from authentic sources. Preparations to this end were begun upon receipt of Secretary Lansing's decision that Villa would be accorded asylum as a political refugee.

Whether, if Villa entered the United States, he would be subjected to legal proceedings, his extradition to Mexico was said to hinge on the attitude of General Carranza, head of the defacto Mexico government. This question was understood to have been submitted to Carranza yesterday and a reply was expected today.

The proposal to secure the elimination of Villa from Mexican affairs was sent to Secretary Lansing and General Carranza after a secret conference of United States military, state and city officials with representatives of Carranza and Villa. Among the conferees the opinion was expressed that the importance of Villa's elimination overshadowed the retention of the right to prosecute him on charges that ordinarily would be of a serious nature.

In local circles it was believed that in return for immunity a new leader would be selected to head the Villa government. The leader proposed was understood to be Governor Avila of Chihuahua.

FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

We Will be Open Every Night This Week

From our thousands of customers comes the popular demand that we keep the store open in the evenings this week. The time is so limited for shopping now that every extra minute counts.

We have made every employe a partner in this week's business. Each will receive a liberal percentage of their gross sales. When one considers the vast amount of business that will be done, they can more fully realize just what this will mean to each salesperson. You can immeasurably help your favorite clerk by coming here and letting her supply your Xmas wants. Aside from the percentage we will pay for each employe's supper, so every dollar they make this week will be clear profit for them.

We urge you to do your shopping the first part of the week as many desirable lines are already thinning out. You who shopped here Saturday know how this store was packed and jammed all day and every person was buying. The same crowds will throng the store this week, so you can realize how quickly the most desirable articles are sold out.

By close observation we find that three-fourths of the day's business is done between the hours of 11:00 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. This leaves but one-fourth of the business to be handled from 8:00 a. m. to 11:00 a. m. Why not shop, then, in these early morning hours when there is no hustle and bustle. You will receive better attention and shopping will be more of a pleasure.

NO DANGER OF FLOOD AT PRESENT TIME

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, Dec. 20.—The Ohio river will stay under the danger mark, 50 feet at Cincinnati, according to the prediction of Weather Forecaster Devereaux today. A crest stage 49 feet is predicted. The river had reached a stage of 43.4 feet at 7 a. m. and was rising at the rate of 2 of a foot an hour. The rise will continue for 36 hours. Mr. Devereaux declared. By Wednesday night the river at Cincinnati will begin to fall had already begun in the upper waters and that as far south as Eversburg the river was receding. Unless there is some unusual condition in the next two days, there is no grave flood danger at this time.

agents are investigating the Welland plot, it is understood the Federal grand jury will resume this week its inquiry into the activities of Labor's national peace council, accused by the United States district attorney here of fomenting strikes in war munition plants. This organization is alleged to have been financed by Frank Von Rintelen, acting through David Lamar. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today went before the federal grand jury which is investigating the alleged connection of labor's national peace council with the conspiracy of Franz Rintelen to foment strikes in munition plants in this country. Frederick Schleindl, the National City bank clerk who was arrested Saturday, charged with purloining papers and memoranda from the bank for the use of the German government through agents here, was re-arrested today before a police magistrate. He demanded legal advice and his bail was reduced from $25,000 to $5,000 and a further examination set for December 24.

The complainant is Harry T. Johansen, assistant cashier of the National City bank. He submitted an affidavit stating that on August 18, 1913, Schleindl purloined certain documents and memoranda including a cablegram from the Banque de Belge via London requesting the National City bank to communicate with the Hudson Trust company concerning a guaranty for the shipment of 2,000,000 rifles at $65 each.

SANTA IN WINDOW AT BESANCENEY'S

The second floor windows of Besancene Brothers store in East Park place, bespeak the Christmas spirit and are unusually attractive, especially to the kiddies. The scene depicted is Santa leaving a happy home. He is in his sleigh driving four reindeers, and they are seemingly speeding along the snowy way. The house scene shows a fireside with the Christmas tree laden with gifts and two children inspecting the pile. At night the whole is effectively lighted and can be seen from quite a distance.

The display is an unusual one and was arranged at an added expense to the company, the background being a painted scene.

Den Jones of Granville was a visitor in Newark on Saturday.

THE BUILDING OF THE YEAR

By FRANK WALCOTT HUTT

Seek, if ye may, of them that read,
Whereto the year thy hopes shall lead—

Toward that proud heights, in lines of flame,
The world may look to read thy name.

But know that in the deepest vales,
Where heroes strive and courage pales,
Amid the wilderness and fen,
Along the beaten paths of men,

Where, face to face with common things,
God's saints have known their stress and strings,

There, brave to share the lot of all,
Shalt thou endure thy part or fall.

There only shalt thou raise or rear
Thy building of another year.

Queer how things even themselves up. Even when a woman's love grows cold her temper is apt to remain just as hot as ever.

INFIELD LEADERS IN FIELDING IN AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR 1915

When it comes to fielding, these four infielders lead the race in the American league. It is a habit with Eddie Collins, the brilliant second sacker of the White Sox, George McBride of Washington, who tops the shortstops, is another repeater, he having been the best fielding shortstop in 1914. Vitt of Detroit and Pipp of New York, however, are newcomers to the rank of premiers.

NO XMAS CHEER FOR PRISONERS AT COUNTY JAIL

The usual roast turkey, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce and other acquisitions which will deck the table of many Newark homes on Christmas day, will be conspicuous by its absence at the county jail. The twenty-five prisoners now confined in the jail and those that might be unfortunate enough to be sent there before Christmas, will be served the usual daily ration, unless the Associated Charities decides to enlighten their Christmas dinner with something better.

Sheriff Charles Swank stated Monday that owing to a cut of from 60 cents to 50 cents per day made by the county commissioners for the care of the prisoners, and the "high cost of living" he would be unable to serve the prisoners other than the regular fare.

"Following the primary election, the county commissioners made a cut of 10 cents from the 60 cents a day allowed me," Sheriff Swank said Monday. "This coupled with the fact that the cost of living is so high will prevent me from serving the prisoners any thing out of the ordinary for their Christmas dinner."

Superintendent William E. Hopkins, of the Associated Charities said Monday that the matter of the Association furnishing the prisoners with a better menu, has been referred to the Christmas committee and a report would probably be made on the matter in a few days.

BREAK IN PIPE CAUSES ROILY WATER IN MAINS

Water in the city mains today was a big improvement over that which flowed from the hydrants Saturday and Sunday, following a break in the pipe leading from the engines to the clear water basin of the infiltration system of the city waterworks.

The break was probably due to the settling of the concrete basin which has been constructed in the sandy soil. In addition to the weight of the basin itself, it contains nearly a million pounds of water which caused the basin to settle and the pipe to break.

Workmen have been working on the break continuously since Thursday morning, a night shift taking the place of the men who worked all day. The break was repaired yesterday. Pending the repairs it was found necessary to pump raw river water, which because of the rains last week, was roily.

Fear Man Is Drowned.
Coshocton, O., Dec. 20.—Friends of Alva Reichley, Pleasant Valley grocer, fear he has been drowned and his wife is said to believe that the man committed suicide. She has consulted three fortune tellers, all of whom told her her husband was "in the water." Before leaving home he left his bank book and $100 in cash on the mantle in the sitting room.

Coshocton, O., Dec. 20.—A jury in common pleas court Saturday returned a verdict of $1,000 against the Pennsylvania railroad company as damages for the death of Clyde Mariatt who was killed during the county fair. The suit was brought by the boy's father, Joseph Mariatt.

POLICE BREAK UP POKER GAME; EIGHT ARRESTED

Police Chief Sheridan last night lead a squad of officers who raided a poker game in West Newark, arresting eight players. The manager of a West Newark business house was charged with operating the game and pleaded guilty in the Mayor's court. He was fined $25 and costs and given thirty days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended on condition of good behavior in the future. The seven players were fined $10 and costs each. The raid took place at 11:20 Sunday night.

An hour later Captain Charles Hager headed another squad of officers who arrested a foreigner operating a game in South Second street, arresting four players and the man charged with running the game. Fines of $10 and costs were assessed.

Special Service For U. S. Sailors

According to reports from Washington, the ships of the United States Navy not on duty in foreign waters will be in their home ports for the Christmas holidays. The vessels will anchor at Portsmouth, Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk and the Baltimore and Ohio railroad has made arrangements through its passenger representatives to provide special service for the officers and sailors of the fleets desiring to spend the holidays at home.

It is the custom to grant furloughs to as many of the naval branch of the service as can be spared in order to allow them to spend Christmas with relatives and friends. Large parties of the officers and enlisted men make the trip to various points throughout the country, and it is to take care of this travel that the Baltimore & Ohio is arranging special accommodations this year.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

Many women desire décolleté gowns, but alas, have damaged complexions, shallow throats, rough arms, and hollows fore and after on the shoulders and chests. The supposedly elusive remedy patiently reposes within each woman, if she did but know it. Of course all women are not born queens of beauty, but each may cultivate her individual type and bring it to its perfection, where the requisite factors of intelligence and unflinching persistence have been the cornerstones.

The need of careful, daily grooming, deep breathing, sufficient exercise, sleep and a discreet winter dietary, all individually and collectively contribute towards making a woman divinely fair. When women realize this simple truth there will be no need of a thousand and one cosmetics, or will it require an hour or longer to touch up the complexion, throat, shoulders and back as a becoming foil for the décolleté gown.

The woman who does not possess a fairly good skin and a becoming amount of flesh certainly faces a perplexing problem, although too much flesh is almost as much of a sin as too little. For go where she will, to opera, dance, dinner, restaurant and theatre, gowns are décolleté and semi-decolleté, and the observer suspects tubercular tendencies when the throat is dressed high and the arms are screened with semi-transparencies.

The easiest way to dissipate hollows and tendencies to blemishes is to take a course of treatment in massage and physical culture, where specific exercises are prescribed.

The best foundation for a décolleté gown whether the skin is too red, too white, rough or otherwise blemished, is a warm bath, followed by a cold dash. Then the complexion and exposed flesh is thoroughly massaged with a cleansing cream. The fingers should be warmed so that the pores will absorb it more rapidly. Remove excess cream by lightly patting with a piece of cheesecloth, allowing a film of cream to remain so as to hold the powder.

Not Photographed By Detectives Say B. & O. Officials

Baltimore, Dec. 20.—Officials of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad deny the reports emanating recently to the effect that detectives connected with the company have been photographing employees seen indulging in intoxicating liquors.

It was explained by those in position to speak with authority that while the Baltimore and Ohio insists upon absolute sobriety on the part of its operating department employees connected with train service, their personal liberty is not interfered with when off duty.

And in this connection it was said that the statement attributed to Dr. J. F. Kearney, chief medical examiner of the company, which it is claimed has been somewhat distorted was in the nature of a professional treatise and a suggestion that in case of accident the administering stimulants should be left to the judgment of the surgeon rather than by fellow-employees or misguided friends.

Christmas Belle

Shout aloud hosanna! Oh, list the Christmas bells! Hark! to the story Their joyous music tells. In Bethlehem, Judea, Bathed in heaven's glow, Lies the Christ, the Saviour, In a manger low.

Peace, good will, he's bringing To trusting souls on earth. Angel hosts are singing "Glory to God" at his birth. Lo, the humble shepherds Join the anthem sweet, Leave their bleating flocks alone The infant Christ to greet!

Still the bells are ringing, Sounding forth his praise. The wise men from the far east His grateful homage pay. And we, O King, thy children, Humbly bend the knee. Take our lives, O Saviour, A Christmas gift to thee! —Mary Ronnick.

TRUSTEES OF DENISON MEET AT CLEVELAND

Survey Committee to Consider Future Prospects of University—News of Granville and Vicinity.

(Special to the Advocate.)

Granville, O., December 20.—President Clark W. Chamberlain is in Cleveland today attending an important meeting of the survey committee of the Denison board of trustees in that city. This committee was formed for the purpose of considering Denison's present conditions and her future prospects. Judging from the present personnel of this committee it may be assumed with entire confidence that the outlook for the institution is most promising. When men of substance and moral weight come together from different cities to discuss a cause dear to their hearts, great things usually happen. Members of the committee who are expected at this meeting are: President Chamberlain of Denison, Mr. Ambrose Swazey and Mr. Henry H. Sherwin of Cleveland; Mr. Eugene Barney, Mr. Fred Beaver, Judge B. F. McCann and E. A. Deeds of Dayton; Judge Charles T. Lewis and Mr. Julius Lamson of Toledo.

Miss Esther Nixon who is teaching in St. Mary's W. Va., arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Nixon, in West Maple street. Miss Eva Nixon is expected home on Friday from Eureka, Ill., where she is principal of the high school.

Mrs. Ellis P. Taylor of Dayton, and Mrs. Harold Lamson of Toledo, with her little son, arrived in Granville today, where they will spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ferguson.

have been privileged with a view of some exquisite work and embroidery just completed by Miss Mollie Jones of Monomoy place as Christmas gifts to relatives. The work is not only marvelously done but is of great variety as well.

Mr. L. A. Austin received a telegram this morning from Mr. H. Lovell Carr, of New York, announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Henry Carr, at Wooster, O., on Sunday. The body will be brought to Granville where interment will be made on Wednesday. The Carrs are an old and honored family of Granville.

Mrs. Fred Miller opened her home in South Prospect street Friday afternoon for the entertainment of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church. Owing to the heavy rain which fell all day long, the attendance was not as large as had been expected, but the meeting had the social hour which followed was full of interest and delight to all present. The president, Mrs. William Howe, conducted the devotional service and Mrs. Hiram Partridge was the leader of the program. In the absence of the two ladies who were assigned the two divisions of the work, Mrs. Partridge spoke in an interesting manner on the missionary needs in "Persia and Syria," and Miss Daisy Howe gave much enlightenment on the condition of "The Mountaineers," always a fascinating study. Mrs. Miller, the hostess, served light refreshments and favored the company with a high-class Victrola recital, beginning with Mme. Schumann-Heink's "Holy Night," and ranging through a well selected repertoire.

An exciting runaway on Broadway took place when the horse driven by Mr. Perry Davis, who resides south of Granville, on the Lancaster road, took sudden fright at the flopping canvas cover on a large motor truck which he passed. According to the report of bystanders the horse became unmanageable, despite the strength of the driver and in attempting to turn into a street at right angles with Broadway, upset the buggy, throwing Mr. Davis violently to the ground. The buggy was knocked out of commission and Mr. Davis badly bruised and shaken up, though no serious damage is reported.

Special Christmas music was a feature of Sunday's services in all the Granville churches. A song service with appropriate music was given at the Presbyterian church in the evening. The evening service in the Methodist church was in the nature of an illustrated address on "Missions" by the pastor, Rev. Otto Gless.

Miss Grace Chamberlain, librarian in the Granville Public Library, in her monthly report gives the number of registered borrowers as 959; number of volumes accessioned 2577; number of calls: men, 259; women, 345; girls, 492; boys, 372; total, 1468. Now would be a good time to present the library with a volume or two of good literature!

The men of Beta Theta Pi entertained their fair friends with a handsomely appointed dinner dance in the chapter house Friday evening.

Covers were laid for forty. Mrs. Frank Ray chaperoning the party. The other fraternities also gave their closing festivities for the fall term, preparatory to their departure from Granville for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Eugenia Finley, head of the Domestic Science department of Shepardson college, will spend the vacation at her home in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey, Mrs. B. I. Jones and Mrs. Belle Grove Wright attended a luncheon Friday given at the home of Mrs. Elmos Dorsey in Grant avenue.

Scribbler—"That fellow Phil Space is a plagiarist. He is always stealing my thunder." Quibbler—"That's nothing. He came around the other day and swiped my umbrella."

"What would you do if you were one of the lawmakers, Willie?" asked the great man. "I'd make more legal holidays," replied Willie.

HAPPENED ON CROWDED CAR SATURDAY EVE.

Many amusing incidents occur each year during the Yuletide "shop early" season when the housewife and daughters begin "toting" home many arm loads of parcels. The first of the season took place Saturday evening with the interior of an East bound Main street car, as the scene of action.

The car stopped at the corner of East Main street and the Public square and for many minutes a stream of the fair sex, all burdened with packages, flowed into the car. A little man who was returning to his home was seated about the middle of the car. A very portly woman with many bundles wended her way through the crowd and confiscated a strap hanging above the little man's head.

"First street" called the conductor, and the little man mumbled something to himself started to arise from his seat. The portly woman defining his intention, laid her hand upon his shoulder and smiling into the little man's face, relieved herself thus: "No indeed, I could not think of you giving me your place. You look tired and I will not permit you to stand while I sit."

"B. & O. railroad crossing," sang the conductor. Again the little man made an effort to slip out of his seat. Again the portly woman showed him gently down.

"North Avenue" broke in the conductor from his place on the rear platform. The little man, his face very red and his eyes snapping, made a final try to leave his seat, but the woman was too quick and he again was forced down, with a "no indeed I insist upon standing."

"We-I-I madame you may stand all you want to, but I want to tell you that I have been trying to leave this car for the past three blocks," stammered the little man. With this the woman released her hold upon the little man and mumbled "the old crab" moved to the far end of the car. The little man left the car at Buena Vista street amid the giggles of the fair sex and the looks of sympathy from the male contingent.

NEWARK GIRL WAS AWARDED FIRST PRIZE

"All Alone" is the title of a dog picture entered in the amateur photographer's contest in the Cleveland Plain Dealer by Miss Ethel M. Lee, of 257 Elmwood avenue. Sunday's issue of the Plain Dealer carried the picture in the art section of the amateurs and Miss Lee was awarded first prize. The picture is that of a small pup sitting on the front porch steps of Miss Lee's home. The animal in the picture is "registering" desolation thus lending more truth to the title.

Every Day Etiquette

"A girl friend with a man escort came into the car where I sat and, after introductions, he tried to pay my fare. Is that proper?" asked Gladys.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Sunday was the twelfth anniversary of the organization of Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church which occurred December the twentieth, 1903. The first pastor, the Rev. E. Luther Spald, began his work March the first, 1904. His successor, the Rev. Calvin C. Root, was the faithful pastor during the long period in which the church was struggling under the handicaps of an inadequate place for worship and but a handful of supporters. The Hilliard property, located at the corner of West Main and Williams streets, had been acquired in 1905, and was used as both parsonage and church until the completion of the present church building. The latter, which adjoins the parsonage, was happily dedicated free of debt in 1913. Progress was naturally slow during the previous years because the congregation was obliged to worship in the house. But since the erection of the church a most gratifying growth has taken place. From the original membership of twenty-five the congregation has grown to over two hundred baptized members. The present pastor, the Rev. Raymond A. Houk, A. M., assumed charge October the eighteenth, 1914. Situated on both the city car line and the Granville line, in the center of West Newark and over a mile from St. Paul's church, Holy Trinity church is assured of a prosperous and useful future. It is her mission to provide a place of worship and service for all Lutherans residing in the western half of Newark. Nor does she wish to limit herself to those of the Lutheran faith only, but seeks to serve all who may be drawn to her doors. Her methods of work are not sensational, but are along strictly Lutheran lines. Her emphasis is upon the preaching of the gospel and the teaching of the Word of God in Sunday school, Luther league, and catechism classes. She is more or less indifferent to outward forms and ceremonies, but holds fast with all sincerity to the truth of God's Word. As the Lutheran church was the first Protestant church, so she is today heart and soul a teacher of the doctrine of justification through Christ by faith alone. Faithful to her heritage she endeavors to pass on that treasure of truth to generations present and future.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickens.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

Give a dog a bad name, and you can't expect him to make good.

A Wish For the Holiday Season

THINE own wish I thee in every place,
The Christmas joy, the song,
Thine be the light of love in every face
That looks on thee to bless thy coming year
My own wish I thee—what dost thou crave?
All thy dear hopes be thine, whatever they be.
A wish fulfilled may make thee king or slave
I wish thine wisdom's eyes wherewith to see.
Behold, she stands and waits, the youthful year!
A breeze of morning breathes about her brows,
She holds the storm and sunshine, bliss and fear,
Blossoms and fruit upon the bending boughs.
She brings thee gifts. What blessing wilt thou choose?
Life's crown of good in earth or heaven above?
The one immortal joy thou canst not lose
Is love! Leave all the rest and choose thou love.

Scene from "The Prince of Tonight."

Grex of Monte Carlo" which lends additional interest to its story. Mr. Roberts, as Mr. Grex, will appear as the Grand Duke, Augustus Peter, of Russia. He and two other diplomats, monomaniacally representing France and Germany, plan to meet as if by chance in Monte Carlo for the purpose of arranging an international fact and drawing up a new map of the world. They meet at Monte Carlo.

The melodramatic features of "Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo" revolve around the efforts of an English secret service operative to learn details of the plotting a young American, Richard Lane, who falls in love with the Grand Duke's daughter, plays a part in the story. The action of the photo-play takes place on land and sea. Right ultimately triumphs and the Duchess marries the young American.

"Prince of Tonight."
A decided improvement over the ordinary musical comedy is "The Prince of Tonight" coming to the Auditorium matinee and night, Saturday, December 25.
This Adams House and Howard play has a well defined fantastic romance woven through it, and the music is fitted to the play rather than used as incidental, as is so common in the general make-up of musical comedies. "The Prince of Tonight" takes you through some beautiful transformation scenes, entertains with clever dances and—entertains, makes you feel younger and you leave the theatre, whistling or humming, "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now" and feeling "It's a Dear Old World After All."

"THE INCARNATION," TEXT OF SERMON BY DR. C. H. STULL

The subject of the discourse delivered by Rev. Charles H. Stull, Ph.D., at the Baptist church yesterday morning was "The Incarnation." The text was, "In the beginning was the word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

The speaker held to the thought that the statement was one which stands out against atheism and all forms of unbelief. It says that God is the eternal Word in the beginning and evermore. He held that the doctrine of the Incarnation is one of the most reasonable of the beliefs of Christianity. All rational creatures seek naturally the face of God. They have done so from the beginning. Only when sin comes between man and God does man withdraw himself to some friendly hiding place away from deity—the object of his worship. Sin had that effect on Adam, but so long as the soul is untouched by sin it will seek the divine face. Knoch walked with God, and was translated without death to be with God. Moses said, "Show me thy face, that I may behold thy glory." All pagan rites and prayers, though very crude, are a search after the true Deity. The meaneast counterfeits of the conception of the true and real. And what the pagan does in seeking to find Him whose seat is above the heavens, the scientists too are doing. Science begins upon an assumption. It works with theories, gathers data, verifies knowledge, and when a fact is demonstrated to be true, it is scientific. It takes up the nature of force and looks toward God. It reasons from the nature of light, the nature of mind, of love, of will, of conscience, and they seek God. But no flesh can by searching find out God to satisfaction; only faith will bring that result. Hence, the superiority of Christian faith over all forms of effort without it. Faith believes where it cannot prove; trusts even when it cannot feel and see. We walk by faith and not by sight. Faith rests in quiet confidence where it cannot explain. Christianity is not a religion of explanations, it is a life to be lived by faith. From all we know of God's love it would be inexplicable if He had not come in human birth. If He is love, why should love not manifest itself. That is the great proof of love, that it manifests itself. "In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God, the Word was God; but the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father full of grace and truth."

The best, the holiest from highest heaven descended to lowly earth not for its own sake but for the sake of others. That is the meaning of the Incarnation. That shows what the Christmas spirit should be—investment for others, the good things, the eternal things for others. God humbled himself to be born of a woman, what humiliation, what marvelous condescension, what matchless, unspeakable sacrifice. How far in self-abnegation are you willing to go to cheer others, suffer for others, exalt others?

Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Bladder Troubles You—Salts Is Fine for Kidneys.

Meat works uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

XMAS TREES BY THE TRAIN-LOAD FOR THIS STATE

Columbus, Dec. 20.—Four trains of fifty cars each would be required to haul Ohio's purchases of New England Christmas trees this season, according to estimates made by Norman E. Shaw, state nursery inspector. Another caravan of automobile trucks more than a mile long, would be needed to carry the trees out within the state, mainly in the hills of eastern and southern Ohio. Holly and other Christmas greenery is coming from Canada in sufficient quantities to cover any city hall or court house in the state. Prices this year appear to be no higher than heretofore, despite the state quarantine on trees from the gipsy moth infested areas of the New England states.

Here are Mr. Shaw's estimates: 200 car-loads with 600 trees in a car already have been hauled across Ohio's borders and a few are yet to come. Forty of these went to Cleveland wholesalers, 30 to Cincinnati, 20 to Columbus and 20 to Toledo. At least $200,000 will be spent by Ohio people on Christmas trees and other green decorations. One home of every ten in Ohio will have trees. Several million trees have been cut from areas in Maine, northern Vermont and New Hampshire, and New Brunswick within the last few weeks. If those used in Ohio were placed side by side they would form a line stretching from Columbus to Toledo, Cleveland or Cincinnati.

Dealers here reported today a greatly increased demand this year for table trees, less than two feet high. These sell at retail for 25 cents. Many are raised by Ohio nurserymen. One dollar is the uniform price this year for trees about 8 feet high, $1.50 for 10 ft. trees, and $2 for 12 ft. trees. Many trees 5 and 6 ft. high may be bought for 50 or 75 cents each. Prices vary, however, with shapeliness and diameter of trees. Ninety-five per cent are spruce, it is said, and a few are arbor vitas.

The "tramps," and "hoboes," and the long procession of job-hunters that we meet and jostle and pass by——Yes, and some "homeless men" who stay in Newark, whose homes have been broken and the other members have died, or have scattered far. All of these men, were little children once and gazed into Christmas "wonder-land."

Some of them seem to have forgotten that time of long ago. Their faces now are hard and depleted; some are bronzed. Some are pale, and when we see them they are grimy and unshaven. Their hands, are hard, dirty, some of them all chapped and sore. They have no gloves and seldom do they have a chance to wash with warm water and soap. Their clothes are so soiled they can scarcely wear them. But how are they to wash them? In the river? But they have no change—and how could they dry them?

One man told me last week that he had a valise containing a full change, suit, shoes and all. He was boarding a moving train, and succeeded in landing his valise in an open car but when he attempted to board the train he missed and was knocked into the ditch. His baggage went on to an unknown destination and he was doubtfully comforting some other who succeeded.

"But they ought not to be tramps, hoboes—beating their way on freight trains," you say. Of course not. They ought to have homes and stay in them, surrounded by their families and friends. But they have no such homes. They are "homeless" men, some passing, some staying in our midst. "Homeless" and many are heartless—have lost heart and courage. No factory or shop or store or farm has a place for them. Nobody wants them. "Send them on!" is the word.

Won't somebody start a homeless Men's Fund? We have received to date:

Miscellaneous Fund $ 28.00

A FRIENDSHIP THAT RANG TRUE

It Endorsed Nerv-Worth and Brought Health to German Street Man.

Some time ago Druggist T. J. Evans received the following written endorsement of Nerv-Worth from Philip J. Lowmy of 171 German street, Newark:

"You can use my name if you wish to as I was nervous, my Stomach troubled me I was weak and could not sleep at nights. A friend of mine advised me to try Nerv-Worth. I have taken two bottles and I feel like a new man. I can eat and I sleep well. I would recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone."

In this case Nerv-Worth quickly overcame stomach trouble and sleeplessness. It has done this in thousands of cases, besides overcoming other symptoms of disordered nerves—dizziness, trembling, sick and nervous headache, pains in side, head, back and chest, bowel trouble, constipation, heart-flutter, weakness, weariness, low spirits and a run-down condition in general. Sold on strict guarantee at the T. J. Evans drug store $1.00 a bottle.—Adv.

THE DANGER FREE TREE.

How Electricity Provides the Sparkling Cheer Without Risk of Fire.

Nearly every 26th day of December we read in the morning papers the pathetic stories of Christmas play that ends in tragedy. It is the annual toll of the Christmas tree candle. Every city has dozens of such cases each year. The candle flame sets fire to the tinsel trimming, a curtain blazes up, and the day of festivity ends in sorrow or some member of the family is badly burned.

The little electric tree lights are decorative and pleasing to children, and they are safe and convenient. Tiny lamps, fruits, roses, dogs, birds, snow men and grotesque little figures are all strung together on fine, silk covered wire and may be readily connected to any lamp socket behind the tree.

The little lamps sparkle and glow. They are the most effective Christmas tree ornaments ever devised, and there is far more fun for the kiddies, because the lamps can burn as long as they are wanted. They do not have to be watched, and the little lamps can be used year after year. They are suitable for any festivity and add gaiety to every gathering of children.

The Austrian affects at Christmas time a delicacy known as fruchtbrod, made of raisins, currants, figs and chopped dates. This constitutes a sort of cake, baked hot.

AN ATTACK ON SALONIKI IS PREDICTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Saloniki, Dec. 19.—Via Paris, Dec. 20.—The highest Greek military authorities declare it to be their belief that an Austro-German attack on Saloniki is inevitable. The remaining Greek troops with one infantry regiment have been transferred to Kozani.

The entente allies have ordered the evacuation of several villages around Saloniki by civilians for military reasons.

The parliamentary elections today passed quietly. A mere handful of soldiers were out, making the extraordinary precautions against demonstrations appear needless. The polls were established mostly in churches and soldiers with fixed bayonets were on guard. The newspapers supporting M. Venizelos, the former premier, whose adherence abstained from taking part in the elections comment bitterly on the empty triumph of the government.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving and Some Newark People Know How to Save It.

Many Newark people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Newark citizen's recommendation.

C. McCough, 164 W. Main St., Newark, says: "I had kidney trouble since a child and suffered a great deal. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they made a cure. My back is now strong and my kidneys act properly. I enjoy the best of health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McCough had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FEEDING COLTS IN WINTER.

The ideal shelter for colts is a tightly built shed open to the south where the colts may go in and out as they please and have the run of a good big field. Idle farm horses can be best sheltered likewise. A dry bed and protection from the weather is all that is needed, says J. S. Montgomery in Farm and Home.

Two parts oats and one part bran makes a very good feed for growing colts. In cold weather a little corn may be added, but this should not make up over 25% of the ration. If clover or alfalfa is fed no oil meal is needed, but if the roughage consists of wild hay or corn fodder, add about 8% oil meal to the grain ration. Should barley be cheaper than oats feed 60% barley, 30% bran and 10% oil meal.

Where a colt has a chance for plenty of exercise there is not much danger of overfeeding. Give him a pound of the grain ration daily for each 100 pounds he weighs and a little more in cold weather.

ALTHOUGH we live in Gungy-wamp,

Which isn't on the map,
An', though our town hez settled down

To take its winter nap,
Our thoughts go out to friends afar,
Friends north, south, east an' west,
We hope an' pray this Christmas day
Will be their happiest.

We live here quiet on the farm,
Irene an' ma an' me;
We have two pens uv noisy hens
An' cats, no less'n three!
We raise our garden sass an' sich,
Make cider ev'ry fall;
Wish we could git a cask uv it
Out to you, one an' all.

We ain't no hands fur style an' sich,
But we jest wanten say
We'll use you white by day or night

El you should come our way,
Accept this greetin', which is full
Uv good ol' Gungy cheer,
An' peace, good will an' joy untill
We see you all next year!

No Perfect Christmas Sermon.
Some one has said that there cannot be found in literature a single Christmas sermon which meets the occasion. Of course there cannot.

The occasion is the new birth of the world. Unless the preacher is competent to say how far the world has grown since its new birth, unless he can comprehend and declare the infinite greatness of that kingdom of God which the Saviour of men promises in the world and unless the same preacher can describe the world as it was, "the people who sat in darkness," he cannot preach the sermon which shall meet "the occasion."—Edward Everett Hale.

PARTIAL REPORT
COMMISSION ON RURAL CREDITS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., Dec. 20.—A partial report from the state commission on rural credits was issued today. Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, former ambassador to France; O. N. Sams, of Hillsboro, and J. L. Taber, master of the Ohio State Grange, were named on a "Rural Credits" commission by Governor Willis in conformity with a law passed by the last Ohio General Assembly. The partial report was made by Messrs. Herrick and Sams. Mr. Taber was west when the report was completed, so could not sign it.

The report is largely the result of investigations by Mr. Herrick, while he was in France as United States ambassador.

In a nutshell, the report proposed a co-operative organization as the remedy for American agriculture's present shortcomings and it added that government financial help is not necessary. The pamphlet gives an historical outline of the discussion of "rural credits" in the country, sets forth state laws that touch on the subject, discusses farm mortgages, building and loan associations, bond and mortgage companies, rural co-operative banking, and describes German, French and other foreign rural credit systems.

In making recommendations to Governor Willis, the report says: "The trouble with American credits may be summed up as a lack of organization. Although there are successful exceptions, American farmers generally speaking do not use their credit and resources collectively in large groups as do business men and financiers in the cities. They do not systematically help one another. The farmers, however, realize this and are trying to correct it, as anyone who attends their meetings can learn. They are bound to organize."

"This rising spirit of co-operation ought not to be interfered with and corrupted at its inception by government intervention and assistance. Co-operation means private enterprise and mutual self-help. So much aid would be an absurdity; also it would be entirely unnecessary. In view of the qualities of educated intelligence, individual initiative, and self reliance in which American farmers are supreme. Moreover, they have fifty billion dollars of property and fifteen million dollars of gross annual income. If this stupendous wealth were organized and made available for their own use, the farmers would be self-sufficient and above the need of outside aid of any sort. Roosevelt when president declared that the co-operative system is the one that farmers would find best adapted for their life and work. Taft when president urged the introduction of rural co-operation. President Wilson in a message to congress said that the farmers should not ask for nor receive special privileges. Secretary Houston reported in 1914 that there is no emergency calling for the use of government cash or government credit for farmers. All the best authorities are united in the belief that co-operation organization is the remedy for American agriculture's present shortcomings and the sure means for its continual advancement.

"The laws should permit combination of associations for agriculture and small industries, but this would be the only class regulation necessary; for the farmers and the small producers and the small consumers would have no need of tax exemption, state aid, or special privilege when once they were able to utilize their collective credit and resources. The legislative steps that might be considered are:

"An amendment to the National Banking Act so as to permit a national bank that confines its credit facilities to members to be organized as an association of any form without capital stock.

"An amendment of the banking act of each state so as to permit any kind of bank that confines its credit facilities to members to be organized as an association of any form without capital stock.

"An enabling and regulatory law by the nation and by each state, legalizing for economic associations whatever is lawful for corporations.

"A clause in such laws to permit combination among farmers' associations and associational banks, among associations organized for selling food and household supplies to members, and among associations organized by artisans for buying of their common account the materials needed in their work or for selling their products."

Resolutions
for Mothers
By Blanche Cole
Hosedale

I RESOLVE to Cuddle—
Because I know that every little child's heart is hungry for the tangible physical manifestations of the greatest love he will ever know.

I Resolve Not to Coddle—
Because I know that my child, although he seems so close to me and I yearn so to protect him from the world, is really no longer part of myself, but a separate personality, which will have to know its own sorrows and meet its own burdens and should be trained with that end in view.

I Resolve Not to Nag—
Because I know that when the child hears my voice when going and never come he only feels a prickly sensation

In the outer epidermis of his consciousness, but does not take in one word I say.

I Resolve to Know—
Because I am sure that only knowledge, as one can attain it today, will enable me to protect my child from the physical dangers with which my ignorance might surround him.

I Resolve to Fill My Child's Life With Interest—
Because I know that the hand which is busy and the mind that is full of intelligent interest can never lead the heart astray.

I Resolve to Teach My Child the Importance of His Actions—
Because I know that a child who is helpful, cheerful, early and brisk at work and at play will develop into a sane, efficient individual.

I Resolve to Watch My Child's Amusements—
Because I know the child is prone to feel that man works to earn the privilege of playing and that therefore his best early ideals of life are really formed by his play, which should be social, healthful and stimulating to mind, heart and body.

I Resolve to Write My Child as One Who Loves His Fellow Men—
Because I know that in an optimistic loving thought of mankind lies not only the good he will accomplish, but the greatest happiness for himself.

I Resolve My Child Shall Not Have One Idle Moment—
Because I know that all the sins of childhood grow from idleness and that God finds some blessings still for busy hands to bring.

I resolve to throw all my influence, all the time I can get together by saving odd moments, all the strength of my intellect, into the vast problem of providing all my children—I, e., all the children in the world—with these essential factors to health, happiness and a useful life which I have chosen for the child of my immediate love, because I know my child cannot obtain very great heights if he leaves his brothers in very great depths.

DAVID CRISS IS VICTIM OF BAD ACCIDENT

David Criss, of the Firm of Criss Brothers Undertaker in West Main street, narrowly escaped death at his home in Hanover Sunday morning, when he accidentally discharged a shotgun and received the heavy charge of shot in the under part of the biceps of the right arm. Mr. Criss Monday was resting as well as could be expected and it is the belief of the attending physician Dr. W. I. Evans of Hanover that no serious effects will follow the accident.

Mr. Criss in company with his son Ralph went to the garage in the rear of their home Sunday morning to get their automobile and drive to Newark. As they were about to leave, the son went into the house for his coat. The shotgun which belonged to a neighbor was standing by a work bench in the garage, where it had been left by the Criss boy when he returned from hunting last Tuesday.

Mr. Criss attempted to remove the gun and as he did so some debris in the corner caught the trigger of the gun discharging the weapon. The contents of which struck Mr. Criss in the arm. Dr. W. I. Evans was summoned and dressed the injury, which consisted of a severe laceration to the lower part of the biceps. Fortunately none of the ligaments nor the bone in the arm were injured.

(Daily Advocate, Dec. 20, 1890.)
A wonderful meteor was observed in this vicinity by a number of citizens last evening about 8:30 o'clock. The well known B. and O. conductor, M. C. Simms, who has been visiting friends in the mountains in Pennsylvania, was out deer hunting, and being fortunate enough to shoot a fine buck deer sent it to his friend, Mr. G. T. Evans, the East End butcher.

WALTER D. OWENS SUCCEEDED
J. L. KIRK, SUB-AUDITOR.

Walter D. Owens has been promoted to auditor of subsidiary lines of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, effective at once, succeeding J. L. Kirk, who died recently. He has been chief clerk to the comptroller and secretary of the valuation committee which is assisting government officials in appraising the company's property, of which committee he will continue to be a member.

Mr. Owens is a native of Baltimore. He was born June 10, 1876, and entered the Baltimore and Ohio railroad service in June, 1892, as a clerk in the auditing department. He was promoted, in April, 1894, to a position in the comptroller's office, and in March, 1900, became secretary to Major H. D. Buckley, late comptroller, and in 1904 was advanced to chief clerk of the department.

Besides qualifying himself as an expert accountant, Mr. Owens entered the law school of the University of Maryland, from which he was graduated in 1903 as prize and honor man of his class. A year before his graduation from law school he was admitted to the bar of the Court of Appeals of Maryland and the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, after having passed the state bar examination with high honor.

F. C. Hanson has been appointed chief clerk to the comptroller, succeeding Mr. Owens.

CLEARING TIMBER LAND.

It is seldom practice to try to remove stumps when the timber is cut. Pulling a green stump requires twice the power needed a few years later, says A. J. McGuire, of Farm and Home. The best way is to cut every thing when the marketable timber is cut. Burn the brush and seed the land to pasture for a few years.

Brush and small trees should be cut in the winter or spring, after the timber is removed, in order to get the grass seeded early. If the land lies over a season, the second growth comes up very fast, but if the brush is burned the second growth is held in check.

Disk among the stumps and sow timothy and clover. On high land sow medium red clover and timothy and on low land, alsike, redtop and timothy. The best time to sow is just before the snow thaws, but before the frost has left the ground.

Love labor for if thou dost not want it for food, thou mayst for physic.—William Penn.

JUST ACROSS CHURCH STREET

The Newark Steam Laundry

Some time ago we installed a water softening plant at considerable expense whereby we are enabled to use the city water, which is entirely pure—free from sewage contamination and therefore thoroughly sanitary, as it not only passes through the city filtration plant but also through our own filters, after being subjected to the softening process, thereby eliminating anything injurious to the fabrics.

THIS IS THE ONLY LAUNDRY IN THE CITY USING PERFECTLY PURE SOFT WATER.

Ownership of Deserts.
 The national government virtually owns all our deserts, although in Texas the state owns all the public lands. It is probable that eventually the desert lands will pass from public ownership into the hands of private owners by allotment of acres, the size of which will be relative to their productivity. For it must be realized that whereas in a well watered region five acres may be enough to support a family, anywhere from 500 to 10,000 acres may be needed to support a family in the desert. It is all a matter of water supply, or water is primarily the basis of land utility and value, as it is the prime means of subsistence of all living things, whether plants or animals.—Youth's Companion.

Tropical Snake Killer.
 Among the rare reptiles in the Bronx zoo, in New York, is the murrana, or snake killer. It is nonpoisonous itself, but attacks, conquers and kills such deadly reptiles as the tropical viper and the fer-de-lance. To their poison it is altogether immune. The snake kills by coiling about its victim and squeezing it to death. Against the coral snake's poison, however, the snake killer has no protection and the quickly succumbs to the paralyzing effects of a coral snake bite.

The Difference.
 Mrs. Dash—The idea of Mrs. Rash having society aspirations! Why, her father was a peddler! Mr. Dash—Yes, she's entirely too forward. She ought to hang back until people have forgotten it. Now, in your case, my dear, it was your grandfather who was a peddler.

Libel.
 Libel once meant any little book, but as many small tracts in the early days of printing were personal and offensive in character the word acquired its present significance.

The Skeptic.
 Harvey's theory of the circulation of the blood was considered so ridiculous at the time of the discovery that for ten years not a single patient consulted him.

All the world's a stage, and some fellows seem to think it's a tank drama.
